

Collet Seals Instruction Sheet B-023-D

Hardinge® Collet Seals

Seals are designed and molded of neoprene to fit tightly in counter-sunk holes in each slot section of the collet.

The seals keep coolant, sludge and chips from entering the spindle, sleeve or tubes reducing downtime associated with clean out.

Keeping your collets and draw tubes clean will result in longer collet life. Cut each seal to required length.

One Hardinge Drive, Elmira, New York
U.S.A. 14902-1507 800.843.8801